

SUMMER SEMINAR IN BANKING AND FINANCE 2018

9-10 July 2018, Sopot, Poland

Call for papers

Faculty of Economics and Faculty of Management, University of Gdańsk, jointly with: Faculty of Management, University of Warsaw and Faculty of Economics and Management, University of Szczecin are organizing the 4th Summer Seminar in Banking and Finance (SSiBF). This small workshop brings together researchers working on empirical papers in banking and corporate finance, to exchange ideas in a friendly atmosphere. The number of presentations is limited, to allow ample time for discussion. The workshop will take place on 9-10 July 2018, at the Faculty of Economics and Faculty of Management, University of Gdańsk.

We invite researchers to submit empirical papers in one of the following areas:

- financial institutions,
- bank risk and financial stability,
- banking market structure,
- the role of banks in the monetary policy transmission,
- corporate finance,
- financial management,
- corporate governance in financial and non-financial institutions.

Papers on related issues are also invited, with priority given to papers with a strong empirical profile. Work-in-progress is especially welcome. Selected papers may be published in the Journal of Banking and Financial Economics (JBFE), where they will undergo a fast-track review process.

Please send your submission to dskala@wneiz.pl or ekoum@ug.edu.pl before March 15, 2018. Please indicate whether you wish to have your paper considered for publication. Authors are not allowed to submit more than one paper. Authors of accepted papers will be notified no later than March 30, 2018. Paper presenters are asked to discuss one other paper during the workshop. There is no registration fee, but the participants are expected to cover their travel and accommodation costs.
